PREFACE.

From the earliest days of Christianity, the Church has employed sacred music as a most powerful agent to awaken piety and enkindle fervor; thus imparting a relish for the truths of salvation, inspiring sorrow for sin, a salutary fear of the judgments of God, and confidence in His mercy. St. Augustine, speaking of the influence exerted upon him by sacred music, exclaims: "Oh! how tender the emotions I felt, how copious the streams that flowed from my eyes, as I listened to the concert of hymns and canticles that filled the church with its heavenly melody. While my ear yielded to the charm of that divine symphony, my soul was inundated with the pure love of truth; fervid ejaculations escaped therefrom with impetuous ardor; my eyes were suffused with tears; my burdened heart was alleviated, and my bitter sorrow changed into unspeakable happiness as I shed them."

Had the singing of sacred canticles no other motive than to excite feelings of devotion, it would be worthy of our greatest attention; but experience has shown that one of the most successful methods of instructing youth, is to cause them to sing the truths which we desire to instil into their tender minds.

The present work has been prepared to meet a want created by the constantly increasing attention given to vocal music in our Catholic Schools. Being prepared for children, music suited to their capacity has been selected, which, while not too difficult, will, if properly executed, prove very effective.

That, while their voices are attuned to the harmonious concord of pleasing sounds, the hearts of our youths may be raised in loving worship to Him, through Whom we live and have our being, is the sincere wish and ardent desire of

THE CHRISTIAN BROTHERS.

1 With hearts truly grateful,
Come all ye faithful,
To Jesus, to Jesus in Bethlehem
See Christ your Saviour,
Heaven's greatest favor,
Let's hasten to adore Him;
Let's hasten to adore Him;
Let's hasten to adore Him,
Our God and King.

2 God to God equal,
Light of Light eternal;
Carried in Virgin's ever spotless womb.
He all preceded,
Begotten not created. Let's hasten, &c.

3 Angels now praise Him,
Loud their voices raising,
The heavenly mansions with joy now ring.
Praise, honor, glory,
To Him who is most holy. Let's hasten, &c.

4 To Jesus, born this day,
Grateful homage repay;
To Him who all heavenly gifts doth bring.
Word uncreated,
To our flesh united. Let's hasten., &c.

Dolentem cum Filio?

7 Pro peccatis suæ gentis,
Vidit Jesum in tormentis

15. AT THE CROSS HER STATION KEEPING.

AIR—No. 14.

1 At the cross her station keeping,
Stood the mournful mother weeping,
Close to Jesus to the last:
Through her heart, his sorrow sharing,
All his bitter anguish bearing,
Now at length the sword has passed.

2 Oh, how sad and sore distressed
Was that mother highly blest
Of the sole begotten One!
Christ above in torment hangs;
She beneath beholds the pangs
Of her dying glorious Son.

3 Is there one who would not weep,
Whelmed in miseries so deep
Christ's dear mother to behold?
Can the human heart refrain
From partaking in her pain,
In that mother's pain untold?

AT THE CROSS HER STATION KEEPING. Concluded.

4 Bruised, derided, cursed, defiled,
She beheld her tender child
All with bloody scourges rent,
For the sin of his own nation
Saw him hang in desolation,
Till his spirit forth he sent.

5 Let me mingle tears with thee,
Mourning him who mourned for me,
All the days that I may live:
By the cross with thee to stay;
There with thee to weep and pray,
Is all I ask of thee to give.

6 O thou mother! font of love!
Touch my spirit from above,
Make my heart with thine accord,
Make me feel as thou hast felt;
Make my soul to glow and melt
With the love of Christ my Lord.

7 Virgin of all virgins blest!
Listen to my fond request;
Let me share thy grief divine;
Let me, to my latest breath,
In my body bear the death
Of that dying Son of thine.

8 Holy mother! pierce me through;
In my heart each wound renew
Of my Saviour crucified:
Let me share with thee his pain,
Who for all my sins was slain,
Who for me in torments died.

9 Wounded with his every wound,
Steep my soul till it hath swooned
In his very blood away.
While my body here decays,
May my soul thy goodness praise,
Safe in Paradise with thee.
